The Cost of Wrong Hiring Decisions

A single bad hire can cost up to 30%

of the employee's first-year salary

74% of

employers have hired the wrong person at least once

Problem

Traditional
evaluation methods rely mainly on standard CVs

CVs lack behavioral insights

CVs provide limited technical depth

This leads to inaccurate
hiring decisions
